FOREWORD

It is with pleasure that my staff and I present the 1954 Indian Village Annual. This publication is a symbol of many long hours of hard work. To the members of my staff go my sincere thanks for their unfailing co-operation. My thanks also are given to Bill Mahaffey for his fine job as Business Manager. The real value of this annual cannot truly be measured now, but in the years to come I hope that the memories which it recalls will be priceless.

DEDICATION

During his eleven years at Upper Sandusky High School, Mr. Shaffer has served as head basketball coach, reserve basketball coach, Junior high basketball and football coach, and head football coach. In 1945 he had an undefeated, untied football team which ranked eleventh in the state. At the present time he is serving as athletic director.

Mr. Shaffer has instilled in our minds the highest of ideals, and his emphasis on good sportsmanship will always serve as a guiding influence. We wish him success in the years to come, and know that we shall never forget his constant help and understanding throughout our high school years.

Administration---

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SUPERINTENDENT

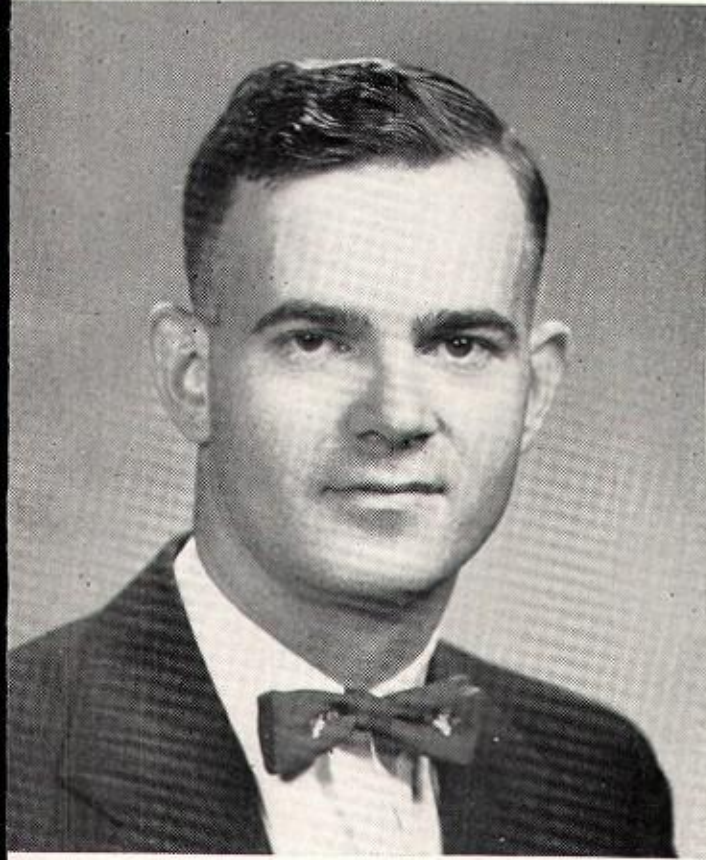

Seniors:

"If there is one thing more than another a young person has a right to demand as a citizen, it is an education. Education for the children of all the people, from the richest to the poorest, and extending from the primary grades through the university, constitutes America's noblest contribution to civilization."

HAROLD U. COPE

PRINCIPAL

Seniors:

"Your degree of success in life can well be measured by the degree of service you render to your neighbor, your country and your God."

DEAN OF GIRLS

We extend sincere thanks to Miss Golling for her advice and understanding during our high school years.

GUIDANCE DIRECTOR

IN MEMORIAM

DONALD E. BOWEN

BORN May 10, 1936

DIED August 12, 1952

His smiling way and pleasant face
Are pleasant to recall
He had a kindly word for each
And died, beloved by all.
Someday we hope to meet him,
Someday, we know not when.
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
Years have passed, our hearts still sore
As time goes on we miss him more.
His cheerful voice, his welcome face,
No one can fill his vacant place.

The American pleasure steamer S. S. IMPERIAL is in South American waters. On board is a German espionage agent in search of a British spy named Charles Locke, who has eluded the Germans for months. Just as the German agent radios a Nazi submarine and is about to divulge the spy's identity to the U-Boat, he is murdered. The German submarine commander boards the vessel not only to find out who killed the German agent, but also to find Charles Locke. But no one on board is named Charles Locke. The submarine commander narrows the suspect down to a group of women. It is not until the last few moments of the play that the slayer's identity is cleverly exposed.

When Hoopy is told by her boy friend that 'you can always tell how a girl will look twenty years from now by looking at her mother,' Hoopy's mother, Lucilla, decides to meet the challenge and do battle. But the battle degenerates to bedlam when Lucille enrolls in the "Beautiful You Glamour School," determined to turn on her inner fountain of youth and become a "new you."

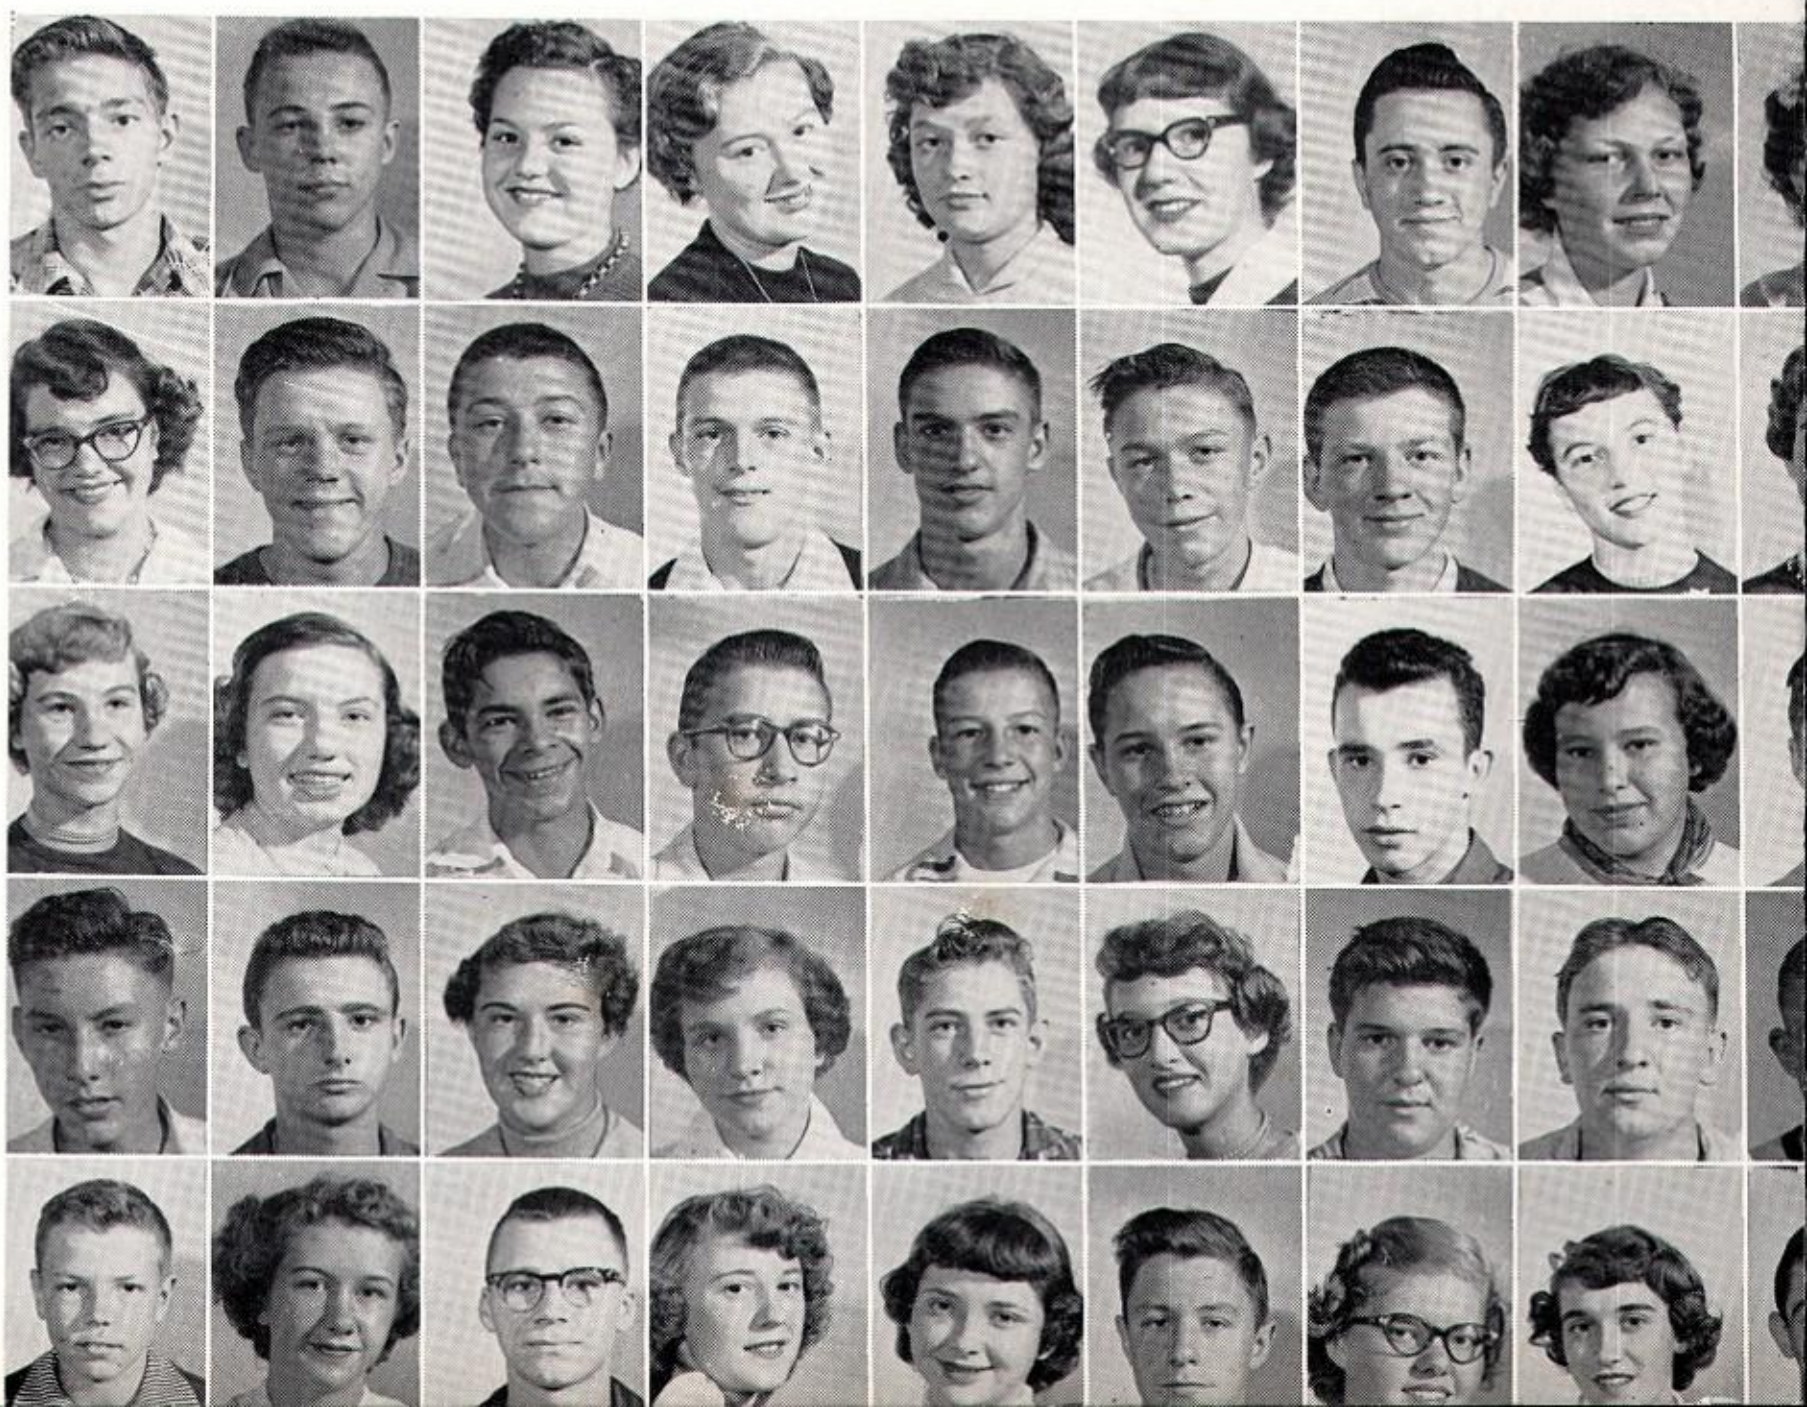

Jimmy, Hoopy's boy friend, persuades Lucilla to model the 1928 styles in a program at the high school. Hoopy is sure her mother will be the laughing stock of the whole school. Arthur, Lucilla's husband, finds out the cost of the "Beautiful You" school and is quite angry.

The play was under the direction of Mr. Olin.

SEVENTH GRADE

UNDERCLASS WRITE-UP

JUNIORS

Looking back upon this very eventful year, they remember how they began this phase of their lives by electing these very capable and popular leaders: president, Robert Graham; vice-president, James Kelly; and secretary-treasurer, Corina Rhoden.

They were kept busy during all home football and basketball games by selling refreshments.

On November 3 they held their class party, and on November 20 was the Junior Class Play, "The Form Divine," directed by Donald Olin.

Mrs. Caves and Miss Rakestraw were their class sponsors, and a lot of credit goes to them for helping the juniors have a successful year.

SOPHOMORES

Now that they have earned the respect and admiration of the juniors and seniors, the sophomores can proudly look back upon a year of success and fun.

They started off on the "right" foot when they elected an excellent "executive" team which includes: president, Julie Sebenoler; vice-president, Dennis Gerber; secretary, Dan Phillips; and treasurer, Tom Roszman.

Choosing their class rings also adds to the thrill of being a sophomore. They held an informal class party on February 2 which was enjoyed by all.

Helping the sophomores through all their rough spots were Mr. Criner and Mr. Fleeman.

FRESHMEN

After eight long years, the class of '57 finally reached high school. Even though they were treated as most freshmen are, they maintained their dignity at all costs and carried out a successful year.

Receiving the honors of officers were the following: president, Kenneth Graham; vice-president, Virgil Heffelfinger; and secretary-treasurer, Donald Morris.

The class took part in all activities that they could and topped off the year with a class party on January 12.

Mr. Koenig and Mr. Olin, the class sponsors, very capably assisted in making the year a success.

EIGHTH GRADE

Soon after returning to school, the eighth graders elected Frederick Corbin, Amy Lawrence, and Ann Hendricks as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

They got right into the "swing" of things by having two class parties, one on November 10 and the other on February 16.

Much credit is given to Miss Hetzel and Mr. Lab, the advisors, who ably directed their activities.

SEVENTH GRADE

To start the year, they elected Darl Gerber, president; and Edwin Schoenberger, secretary-treasurer.

They had quite a time choosing a date for a class party, and finally decided on February 15.

Their advisors were Mrs. Tucker and Miss Bell who led them through their first year "upstairs."

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the main duties of the Student Council is to create an understanding between the teachers and the students. Presidents of all classes and organizations and chosen representatives are included in this Council.

Ruth Binau, as President, did an excellent job of presiding over the meetings. The Vice-President, Richard Newell, presided in her absence. Minutes and attendance were taken by Margaret Rall, the Secretary. The money was handled by the Treasurer, Jerry Steiner. Mr. Ray Harper, the very competent advisor, was always present to give helpful advice.

This Council was very active this year. The selling of paper plates was one of its money-making projects. It took charge of furnishing the new recreation room in our high school. The annual Talent Show was also in charge of Student Council and was presented February 23.

This year has been a very successful year for the Student Council, and the members should feel very proud of their club and the services it has rendered to the school.

HI-TEENS

Under the capable leadership of its thoughtful and helpful advisor, Miss Jean Golling, the Hi-Teens Organization has had another very outstanding year.

Ruth Binau as our faithful president was in charge of all meetings. She was aided by the vice-president, Iris Koehler. Phyllis Smith as secretary undertook the record-keeping job and Betty Jean Kinsley took the position of treasurer. The officers were assisted by their very capable executive committee: Beverly Armstrong, Jayne Miller, Doris Armstrong, and Janet Phillips.

Initiation was held early in the school year followed by an inspiring candle-light service on October 26. The club sponsored a Christmas gift-wrapping contest and presented the entries to needy children throughout the county. On December 15 the organization sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, which proved as big a success as ever.

The club feels that this has been a particularly successful and eventful year, for every girl co-operated and showed an interest in the club's work.

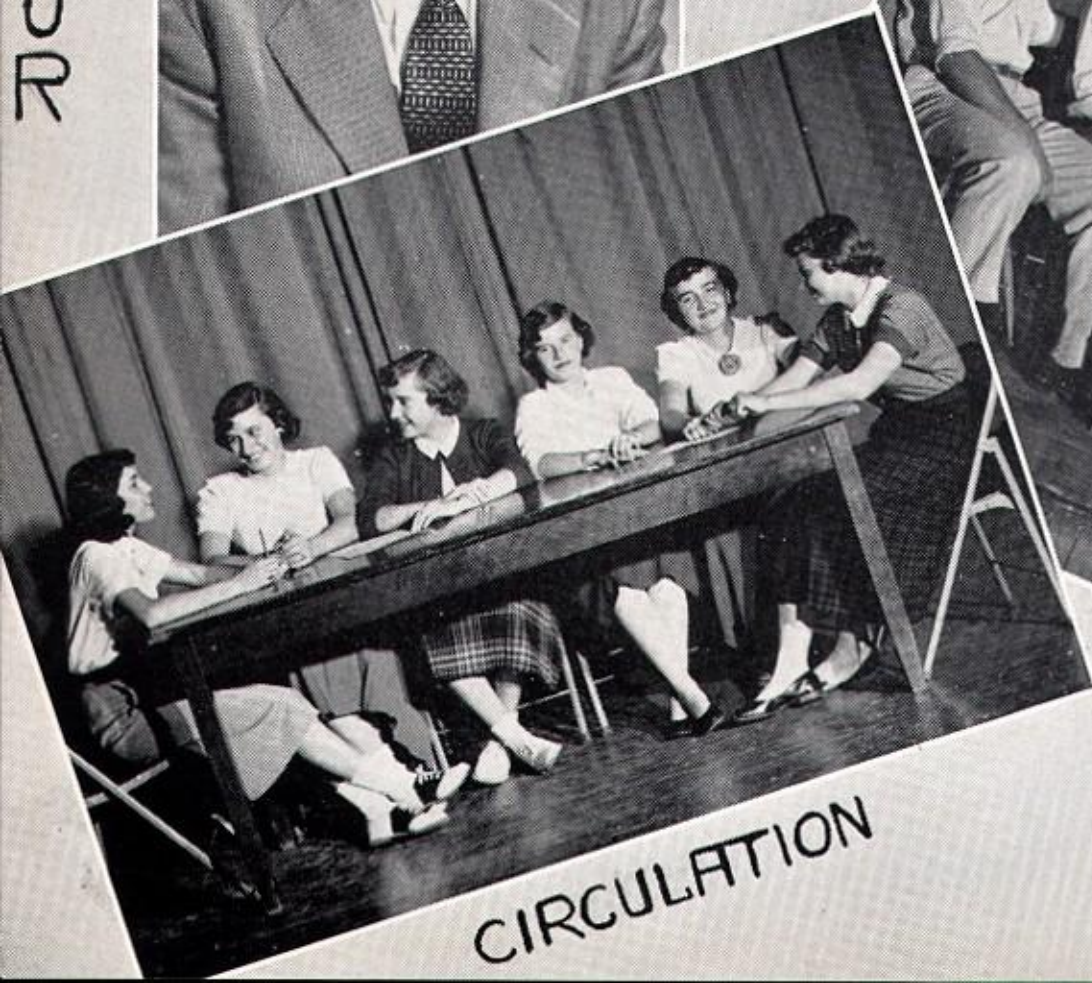

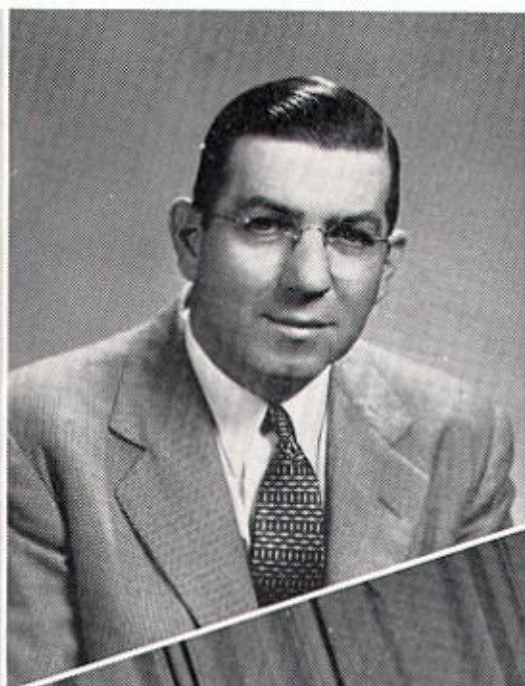

ANNUAL STAFF

Under the faithful supervision of Mr. Richard Lab, the advisor, and Mr. Frederic Criner, the proofreader, the Orange and Black Staff has completed another very successful year.

The Orange and Black, published once a week in our home-town newspaper, the Daily Chief Union, gave the public an opportunity to learn more about our school's functions and activities.

The Orange and Black Staff and its advisor, Mr. Lab, deserve a great deal of praise for their work in making our high school paper a big success.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists.

This year the organization elected Tom Henige as their President and Rita Gottfried as their Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Richard Lab served as their supervisor.

VISUAL ED

These students, under the direction of Mr. Koenig, ran the projectors for classroom films. They also offered their services to local community organizations. They brought to us not only education but also enjoyment.

We have greatly appreciated their services.

The members of the Radio Club, who have as their very capable director, Mr. Donald Olin, deserve a great deal of praise for the progress they have made this past year. Instead of the usual fifteen minute program, it was possible to tune in WMRN for a half-hour and hear of the latest happenings within our high school.

The programs were sponsored by the Upper Sandusky merchants and featured sports, news, club news, school talent and other interesting school activities.

Early in the year, Gwen Naus was chosen to represent the club at Student Council meetings.

Being a member of the Radio Club means a lot of extra work, but the participants can feel very proud of the outstanding work they have achieved.

TRI-MASQUE

During the school year each class presented a play for a school assembly. On December 5, the club attended the Ohio State Drama Clinic where they took part in demonstrations and discussions concerning the basic problems of play production. This year the Tri-Masque again sponsored the Play Festival on February 9. At this time the sophomores, juniors, and seniors each presented a one-act play. The audience then voted for the play they considered to be the best. The junior class play was voted the winner in this festival.

Upper Sandusky High School now holds a charter in the National Thespians Society. All students in Tri-Masque who earn ten points in dramatics are eligible to join. There are approximately thirty students in this group. The cast for the Festival Contest Plays are chosen from the Thespian members. The Thespian officers are as follows: Ruth Binau, president; Gwen Naus, vice-president; Barbara Hehr, secretary; Dave Kuenzli, treasurer; and Pat Warnement, scribe.

SB

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers of America is composed of all those high school students who are interested in teaching. They earn merit points by giving their assistance to teachers in the school.

The President was Margaret Rall, who, with the aid of Joann Siegel, Vice-President, presided over all the meetings. Sally Blue, as Secretary, recorded all activities, while Ann Humphrey, Treasurer, kept an account of all the money. Pat Warnement, Historian, and Roberta Thiel, Librarian, were also kept busy doing their respective duties.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Hazel Caves, the advisor, a very successful year was planned. On October 28, the initiation of new members was held. Speakers were obtained for several of the meetings to explain the purpose and aim of teaching. The group sponsored a County F.T.A. and gave a luncheon on December 21 inviting all former members.

All in all, the school year 1953-1954 was very profitable to the Future Teachers of America.

F. F. A.

This year, the Future Farmers of America, under the leadership of Mr. John Borton, chose the following boys for officers: President, Kenneth McClain; Vice-President, Joe Hehr; Secretary, Jerry Roszman; Treasurer, Carl Walton; Reporter, Jim Hooper; and Sentinel, Dennis Kin. These officers managed the F.F.A. during its twice monthly meetings.

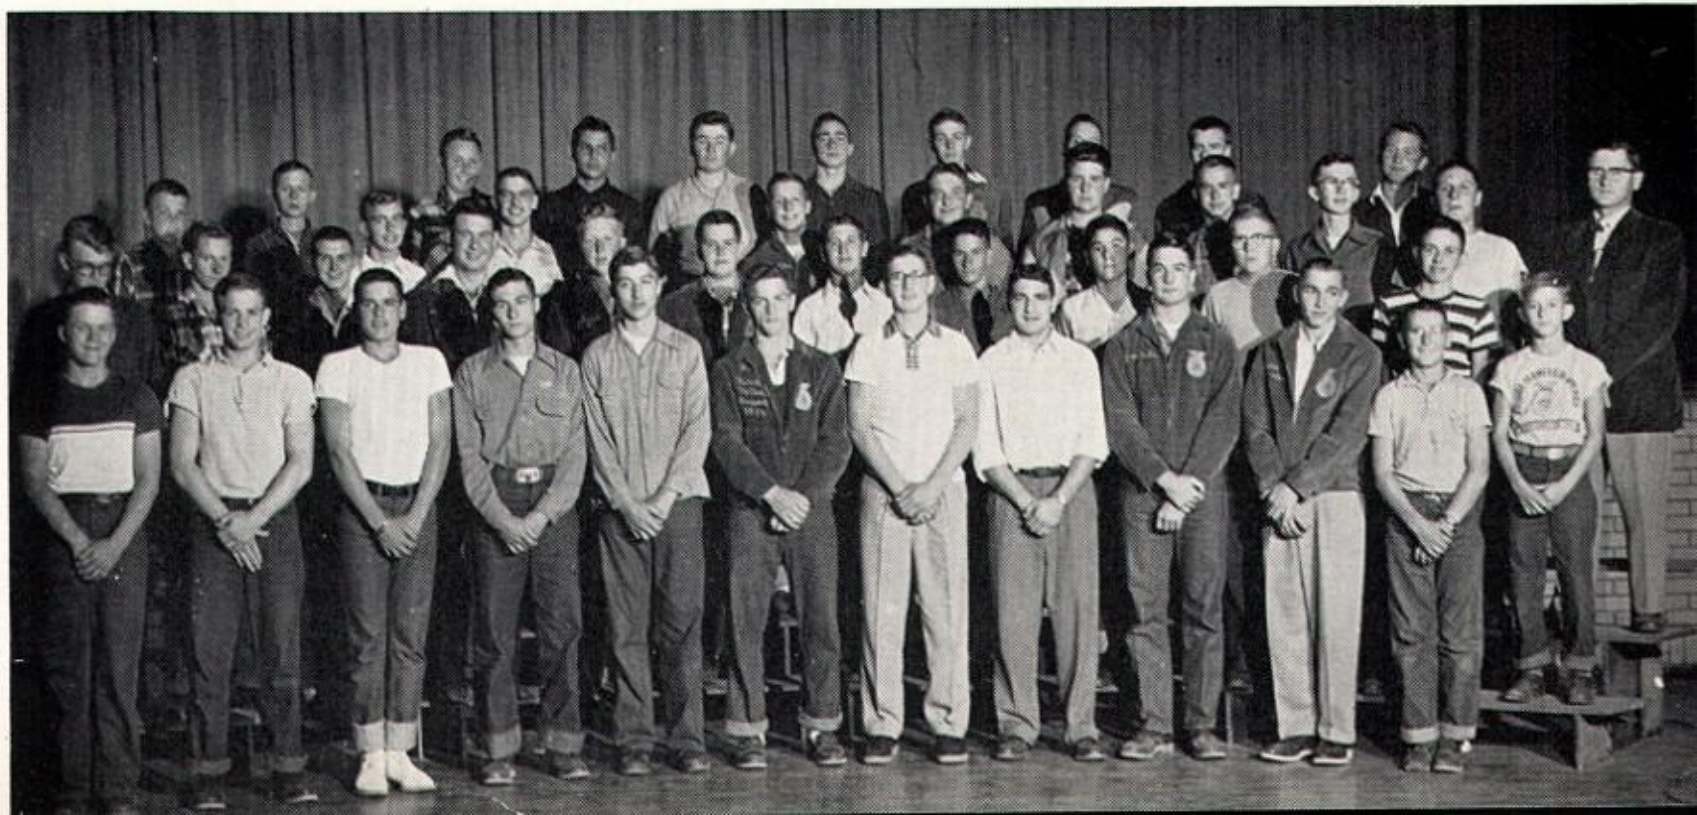

Again this year, two representatives were sent to the National Livestock Convention in Kansas City. They were Jim Kelly and Larry Swihart. The chapter also sponsored another member, Allen Ulrich, to be in the F.F.A. National Band.

A few of the F.F.A.'s many projects were: the CROP program, the annual banquet, the county pest hunt, and extemporaneous and public speaking contests.

We are very proud of our F.F.A. and the work they are doing.

SENIOR G. A. A.

Row one—Barbara Maxwell, Mary Smith, Shelba Walton, Marilyn Dillion, Carol Hetzel, Nancy Pfeifer, Sally Hetzel, Sally Walters, Lynda Kentfield, Shirley Messmer, Carol Herring, Barbara Rowland, Janet Phillips, JoAnn Crary, Doris Armstrong, Gwen Naus, Anne Larcomb, Iris Koehler. Row two—Phyllis Miller, Joyce Whitman, Sally Schroer, Corina Rhoden, Phyllis Beausay, Beverly Heffelfinger, Teresa Bianchi, Carol Stecher, Mary Sammet, Peggy Steiner, Rose Martig, Kathleen Kotterman, Marilyn Culver, Carolyn Kotterman, JoAnn Hetzner, Suzanne Althausen, Doris Brinson, Carol Wolfrum. Row three—Shirley Constein, Marilyn Koehler, Linda Little, Jean Wisner, Marilyn Karg, Ruth Roszman, Helen Kinley, Fern Clinger, Ann Humphrey, Barbara Hehr, June Delaplane, Eileen Rowland, Martha Mohre, Lois Hoover, Phyllis Smith, Betty Kinsley, Barbara Degler. Row four—Ruth Kiehl, Shirley Clark, Nancy Larick, Rose Walterhouse, Diane Witzel, Chris Carroll, Sandy Corbin, Joy Schoolfield, Normie Ratliff, Pearl Minard, Pet Dillion, Carol Heffelfinger, Rosemary Kinley, Ruth Binau, Jayne Miller, Nancy Rowland. Row five—Julie Sebenoler, Nancy Vieth, Miriam Hoover, Diana Rhoden, Rachel Feeley, Delight Kramer, Eileen Roberts. Row six—Edna Myers, Shirley McClain, Wilda Swartz, Betty Gasink, Neva Larick, Carol Main, Sara Miller, Linda Phillips, Jocelyn Steiner, Nancy Scheidegger, Carolyn Mick, Martha Palmer, Laura Swartz, Marilyn McClain, Nancy Ellis, Pat Book, Joan Worline.

"Order please" were the words of Rose Marie Martig, President, as she tried with the help of Nancy Rowland, Vice-President, to quiet the girls. It was the duty of the Secretary, Betty Jean Kinsley, to jot down the minutes. Marilyn Culver, the Treasurer, was kept busy reminding all the members to pay their dues and keeping the records straight. The Executive Committee, Ferne Clinger, Sara Lou Miller, and June Delaplane, also were of great assistance to the officers throughout the year.

There were many things on the agenda for the Sr. G.A.A. Club this year. Following initiation of new members, plans began to materialize for a party held April 23. An orchestra was obtained, and round and square dancing were featured during the evening.

This organization sponsored several after-game dances and also played an important part in the annual May Day program.

The Sr. G.A.A. members realize that most of their success is due to the thoughtful and careful guidance of their advisor, Miss Joan Bell.

JUNIOR G. A. A.

This year the Jr. G.A.A. Organization has had many enjoyable times together under the leadership of their President, Mary Jane Swartz. To assist her in her work, the following other officers were chosen: Vice-President, Carolyn Swerlein; Secretary, Sharon Mutzner; Executive Committee, Kathleen Mason, Tanya Kuenzli, and Mary Steinmetz.

The year started very appropriately with an initiation ceremony. Much of the members' fun was centered around volleyball and ping pong tournaments. Later in the year, the officers, assisted by their chosen committees, planned a scavenger hunt and dance. The Jr. G.A.A. always lends a helping hand in the May Day celebration and sponsors the check-room during the basketball season.

Each member agrees that the year would not have been so successful without the able assistance of their advisor, Miss Joan Bell.

MARCHING BAND

"Happy Days" is the title of the fanfare played as the entrance march of the Upper Sandusky High School marching band. And it truly was "Happy Day" in more ways than one for the local band. The 1953-54 bandsmen, under the direction of Ralph Faulk, looked and sounded better than ever as they high-stepped around the field in many fine maneuvers of precision marching. Several of the selections to which the band presented very appropriate precision dance steps were The Bunny Hop, Conga, The Mexican Hat Dance, and dum da dum dum, Dragnet. Although precision marching is much more difficult than ordinary formations, the fans, Mr. Faulk, and the band members themselves enjoyed this type of show much more.

This was the last year for 19 senior members of the band, but the memories of the after school practices, the band bus, and the "big show" at each football game will be long remembered and cherished.

To Mr. Faulk and all the members of the 1953-1954 marching band, we wish to fire a twenty-one gun salute for a job well done.

DRUM MAJOR

and MAJORETTES

This year, Upper's marching band presented a new feature from other years. Very seldom in a school of our size does one find a drum major leading the band; but this year Upper Sandusky was fortunate to have an extremely capable one. Jerry Roszman, Upper's new drum major, was out in front leading the band up and down the field last football season. And he, with the help of his six majorettes, presented many interesting dance maneuvers during the half-time show, all of which added much to the general appearance of the band.

The majorettes included Bessie Riley, senior; Nancy Pfeifer and Debbie Riley, sophomores; and Marilyn Kunert, Elaine Book, and Barbara Myers, freshmen. The head drum major was Jerry Roszman who is a sophomore.

CONCERT BAND

Immediately following the football season, the band began to prepare for the concert season. It took a week or two for the members to quiet down, but after a few reminders from Mr. Faulk that they were no longer on the football field but rather in the auditorium, they began to play a wee bit softer.

The high-light of the band's year was the Mid-Winter Band Concert presented jointly with the Fostoria V.F.W. Band on March 22nd in the high-school auditorium. During the past year the band played for the Junior Class Play and the Farmer's Institute. They also participated in the annual Northern Ohio League Band Festival held this year at Bellevue. The band completed the concert season by playing for the Commencement activities.

Many of the musicians, whether as ensemble groups or as soloists, represented our high school at the District Solo-Ensemble Contest held March 18th at Heidelberg College. Several of these groups were fortunate to be able to participate in the State Solo-Ensemble Contest held this year at Bowling Green.

JUNIOR BAND

Perhaps you have sat in class during the first period wondering what that noise was which seemed to be coming from the auditorium. It sounded most alarmingly like the senior band, but it couldn't be because they meet the last period. Well, you were soon to find out that it was the forty-four piece junior band under the direction of Ralph Faulk. They were practicing every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, anxiously waiting and preparing for the day when they could step into the places of the out-going senior bandsmen.

This year the junior band again sent students to the County Solo-Ensemble Contest which was held at Sycamore. Out of sixty-eight groups entered, thirty-eight received a rating of One or Superior. This success goes to show what much hard work and determination can accomplish.

We, the seniors, wish the best of luck to you who are now the junior band members. You will soon be among the leaders in our senior band representing our school at football games, in concerts and contests.

CHOIR

One of the most outstanding organizations of any school is its choir. Upper's choir is one of which any high school could be proud. This seventy-voice ensemble is under the very capable direction of Ralph Faulk.

During the year the choir presented many concerts at school as well as at community activities. One of the high-lights of the year was the Choral Workshop held in January at Heidelberg College. The choir also presented beautiful concerts at the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. The choir appeared in the annual Northern Ohio League Choir Festival held this year at Crestline.

The senior members of the choir will never forget the benefits and enjoyments which they had while being a part of this splendid group. One of the most cherished memories of our high-school days will be of the days, months, and years we spent as members of this musical organization.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors was under the capable direction of Mrs. Foucht. Although this was Mrs. Foucht's first year at Upper High, she has displayed excellent musical ability in the leadership of the Glee Club and the Seventh and Eighth Grade Chorus.

In spite of the fact that the Glee Club did not meet every day, they have really accomplished a great deal and have an organization of which they can be extremely proud. Their activities for the past year included participation in the United Nations Day program and the Thanksgiving Day program. This group also took an active part in the Christmas program.

We wish to congratulate Mrs. Foucht for the excellent work she has done in her glee club and chorus groups this year.

JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS

Several of the other active musical organizations around the high school are the Seventh Grade Chorus and the Eighth Grade Chorus. Although these groups meet separately, the primary aim of each is similar. It is through these organizations that the instructor finds the approximate tone range of each voice, and during this process attempts to improve the quality and range.

These two groups are under the direction of Mrs. Foucht. During the year they too participated in several assembly program, and their appearance was always greatly enjoyed by all of the students.

We of the graduating class wish the best of luck to you in your future years as members of the advanced musical organizations.

CO-CAPTAINS

Both Keith and Dave received marked recognition from all over the state. Keith was selected first team All-League Guard in his junior and senior years. During his senior year, he was named "most valuable lineman" of the league. Dave was selected "All-League Halfback". He was the leading scorer in the state with 227 points. Both boys were selected on the All-Ohio Football Team. We congratulate these boys for their outstanding achievements.

On October 30, 1953, Mary Ann Carroll was crowned Homecoming Queen by Superintendent Harold Cope. Mary Ann reigned over the contest between Upper Sandusky and Norwalk.

COACHES

SENIOR FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

The Upper Sandusky Rams had another very successful year under the supervision of their head coach, Leo Strang and his assistant, Fenton Wolfe. The Rams ended the season with a record of seven wins and two losses. It was proven this year that size and speed do not win the game, but that determination and team spirit play the main part in the team's success.

Even though the team was defeated in two of its nine games, they displayed outstanding cooperation and sportsmanship. The team and their co-captains, David Kuenzli and Keith Quail, are certainly deserving of all the honors bestowed upon them in the 1953-54 season.

Coached by Leo Strang, the Upper Sandusky Hoopsters had a winning spirit from the first to the last game, maintaining a "never quit" attitude even though they didn't always come out on top.

Handicapped by the lack of height and experience, and having only one varsity player returning this year, the Rams may have been outplayed on the score board but never in spirit or effort.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Tomorrow's Varsity looked good in the spirit and effort put forth. The Reserves had a height advantage over most of the teams, and Coach Fenton Wolfe used it to a great extent. Our Varsity looks promising in a few years if they keep on coming as they have so far.

CHEERLEADERS

As the years roll on we shall long remember the clever stunts planned for pep meetings by our five Varsity Cheerleaders—Sally Blue, Eileen Rowland, June Delaplane, Joan Worline, and Sara Lou Miller. It was through their untiring efforts that they were able to preserve good school sportsmanship and to hold the interest of the student cheering section.

Sally Blue has been cheering our teams on to victories for the past three years. Eileen Rowland, June Delaplane and Joan Worline have been active cheerleaders for the past two seasons. Sara Lou Miller was added to the group this year.

We applaud these five girls for their splendid work throughout the year. We know that the cheers were almost as essential for our winning as were the efforts of the coaches and the teams.

TRACK

About fifty prospective squad members have reported for practice, and with this array of talent, Coach Wolfe expects a very productive season. Nine letter-men back from last year will form the nucleus for this year's squad. In spite of a very difficult schedule, we're sure that the 1954 track team will make a fine showing.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1950, as a class of 101, we started an important journey, which was to last four years. With the help of our sponsors, Mr. Koenig and Mr. Olin, we proved that all Freshmen are not so naïve as they may seem. We held two class parties, one in October and one in February. Our officers were: president, Ruth Binau; vice-president, Sally Blue; secretary, Richard Warfel; and treasurer, June Delaplane.

In our Sophomore year, we chose David Kuenzli as our president; Kenneth McClain, vice-president; Betty Jean Kinsley, secretary; and Don Eyestone, treasurer. The big event of the year was the selection of our class rings. A large attendance was found at our hard times party on November 27. Our able advisors that year were Mr. Shaffer and Mr. Criner.

Then we were Juniors, under the direction of Mrs. Caves and Mr. Ebenhack. From the 59 girls and the 38 boys, we chose the following officers: president, Kenneth McClain; vice-president, Carolyn Kotterman; and secretary-treasurer, Bill Mahaffey. Under their leadership we sold refreshments after the football and basketball games. On November 21, we presented the Junior Class Play, "Who's Crazy Now?", which was directed by Mr. Criner. On February 3 we had our class party. Later in the year we had to plan another very important event—the Junior-Senior Prom. We honored the Seniors with this Prom on May 25.

At last we arrived at the most important year of our high school careers—our Senior year. We tried to make this year representative of our best efforts, for we realized it was to be our last year at Upper Sandusky High School. We chose Richard Newell as our president; David Naus, vice-president; Mary Ann Carroll, secretary; and Janet Phillips, treasurer. Our class play, "Incognito," directed by Mr. Olin was presented on April 30. On November 24, we held our class party. We enjoyed the annual Prom, with which the Juniors honored us on May 21. Then, with the coming of Baccalaureate and Graduation, we realized that our journey was coming to an end. As a class of 85, we received our diplomas on May 28 and knew that our high school years had really ended.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

- I, Beverly Armstrong, will my place in the clarinet section to Donald Stephans.
I, Doris Armstrong, will my blunt and frank statements to Joan Worline, provided that she uses them with discretion.

I, Dick Newell, will my ability to skip school with a good excuse to Bob Beard.
I, Harold Plott, will my tuba and sour notes to Sherman Stansbery.
I, Edwin Pool, will my meek, timid way to David Steck.
I, Dick Racheter, will my many free periods to any lucky soul who thinks he can get away with them.
I, Bob Sebenoler, will my special knack for Spanish and this year's entire "La Luz" subscription to any first year student who needs them; they didn't help me.
I, Jim Shaffer, will my careful driving habits to Paul Steiner.
I, Jerry Steiner, will my willowy carriage and fatal hair styles to Bill Hauff.
I, Bill Swartz, will my pleasant personality to "Professor" David Swinehart.
I, Allen Ulrich, will my cow to Mr. Borton.
I, Carl Walton, will my hard fighting spirit and rough tactics to "Zeke" Gerber.
I, Dick Warfel, will my ability to bluff through a class without doing a lick of work to Rickard Hoy.
I, Bill Whitmore, will my jungle hammock and bear rug to anyone who's crazy enough to sleep out all year around.
I, Jon Zimmerman, will the sum of 36 quarters to Gary Saull.
I, Jim Brown, will my basketball ability plus my long fingers and height to Mike Riley.
I, Talmage Wooten, will to Larry Obee two feet in height.
We, Janet Phillips and Gwen Naus, will to the unfortunate ones of next year's senior class our ability to write a class will.
To the tides and sea winds the Class of 1954 gives its faults, and to the memory of everyone its good qualities.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Somewhere in Space
Fortunetellers, Incorporated
1999

Friends, classmates, and unlucky readers:

Shhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh, How can I concentrate with such noise? I must have perfect silence. Ahhhhh, I feel something trying to get through to me. Well, just imagine! It's the unknown Earth. What, you say I'm crazy, You're right!

Some silly tall boy is trying to tell me the class of "54" was voted the greatest, yet. I think his name is Joe Bolish. What a crazy, mixed-up kid!

Looking to the right in my crystal ball, I see that June Delaplane has recently taken over as president of "Better Interplanetary Travels." Her brilliant staff consists of Lois Hoover, chief Mars Consultant, with Wanda Horn as her assistant.

In deep concentration, I see Pat Arnold of "Arnold's Conservatory of Hillbilly and Operatic Music," reporting that Barbara Hehr won their annual contest and is now appearing in "Love Is Forever," written by Sandra Preble. Barb's talented cast includes Sally Blue, pianist, and Dave Naus, dramatic star.

One of my spook helpers just told me that two chlorophyll addicts, Carl Walton and Jim Shaffer, have composed and illustrated a best seller, "The Green Corpse." Typist was Kathleen Kotterman, and the publishers were "The Richard Newells."

Some sad news. Roy Rogers has retired, but Calvin Bardon plus his cowboy boots is taking over Roy's place. Keeper of Gunshot, his horse, is Jerry Steiner.

Gwen Naus, U.S.H.S. TV star, is planning a trip to Mars on her vacation. Janet Phillips, also a TV star, is planning to spend a few days with her husband whom she hasn't seen in twenty years. TV must be a busy business.

The planet Venus, a few miles from here, is being explored for the first time by scientists Allen Ulrich and Bill Swartz. They are keeping their discoveries a secret. Wonder why?

Oh, my, things are getting cloudy in my crystal ball. Oh, those channels! Here it comes back again. Hummm, "Muscles Incorporated" is now operated by Jon Zimmerman and Buddy Matthew. Keith Quail and Dave Kuenzli have recently enrolled. Too much loafing, I guess.

A warning from "Earth-Space Patrol" to be on the lookout for Bob Best and Bradley Burk, who are whizzing through space in a new Hot-Rod Rocket. Woe to those who get in their path.

At work on the moon's new atomic missile are Bill Whitmore and Bill Mahaffey. They call it "Willies' Nightmare."

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Jim Brown, Earth's No. 1 pro-cage star, has announced a new member of his great team, Harold Plott. Cheerleaders are Jayne Miller, Shirley Messmer, Imelda Frey, and Lynda Kentfield.

In the rural field of this atomic age, Jim Hooper and Bob Brubaker have just bought their 130th farm. Joe Hehr is also making lots of money on his chicken farm on Jupiter.

Wait, I hear a knock at the door of my sanctuary. Oh, it's Anne Larcomb. You say you want your palm read? Come, sit. Now, silence. Ah, I see you are the owner of a large Research Hospital. Martha Mohre, Rose Marie Martig, and Jo Ann Crary are the Doctors of Research in this great institution. You are destined for success if you search for it.

Now that I am again alone, I can concentrate. In the national spotlight, Kenny McClain has been elected President of the Universe. Betty Jean Kinsley is vice-president, Captain of the Rocket Rangers is Dick Racheter. Ranger secretary is Roberta Thiel.

On Paradise Island, five miles into the interior, we find a new dance called "Angel's Creep" starting. Head dance instructor is Iris Koehler. Taking dancing lessons are Joann Siegel, Rebecca Mathews, and Marilyn McClain.

Baseball, which is no longer in existence, has been replaced by space ball, invented by Dick Warfel. The Universe Space Ball Team consists of Dave Eippert, Don Eyestone, and Bob Sebenoler. Roger Frantz is head coach. They haven't won any games yet, but maybe next time.

Peggy Steiner and Carolyn Kotterman were fined for speeding on Planet Venus. They were hauled into court where Margaret Rall and Pat Warnement, judges for the plaintiff, fined them $70 and costs plus thirty days on Earth.

A new chain of meat stores was taken over by Tom Krichbaum. His favorite pastime is cutting up cows. He's pretty good at it, too.

Normie Ratliff, Bessie Riley, and Mary Ann Carroll, who are known as the "Coon Crick Three," are appearing in Mr. Ebenhack's Show called "You All Come, You Wish You Hadn't."

Madelon Will, Shelby Wells, Delight Kramer, and Eileen Roberts form the nation's top basketball team for girls. They have won national honors all over the moon, and on Venus.

To take care of the appetites of the tremendous crowd of basketball fans from surrounding planets, Rita Gottfried and Phyllis Smith operate a swanky restaurant. Nancy Rowland is chief cook, and Lois Frantz and Rachel Feeley are the waitresses.

Well, I see my crystal ball is clouding over again. Must be the weather. Anyway, I hear one of my spooks calling so I must float out of here.

Ghostfully yours,

Doris Armstrong
